

Climbing Instructor TRAINING

Please find actual dates on Council Training Calendar.

This training consists of 3 required parts.

1 Weeknight at McGimsey

1 Weekend at McGimsey (Saturday & Sunday 8am – 5pm)

1 Weekend at Bear Creek (Friday 7pm – Sunday 4pm)

If you are an adult 18 or older you are invited to attend climbing and rappelling training. Learn about knots, climbing equipment, commands, rigging, site management and best of all you get an opportunity to climb and rappel on real rock.

You must complete all training sessions to complete this course. Training begins at McGimsey Scout Park on Tuesday, 7pm – 10pm. Training will continue on Saturday and Sunday, from 8:00am to 5:00pm at the McGimsey Climbing Tower. You will need to bring a sack lunch.

Training culminates with a weekend at Bear Creek. Stay at the OA Conference Center or if you want, camp in the area surrounding the Conference Center. We will start on Friday at 7 PM and conclude Sunday at 4 PM. No personal equipment will be required. A climbing hold harmless form, current physical, and Climb on Safely are required. Climbing is a strenuous activity and we won't be sitting still, so be prepared.

Cost of the training will be $85.00. You will receive all written materials necessary for the course. Class size is limited to 8 participants. PLEASE REGISTER ONLINE by clicking on the event on the first day of training and clicking on the "Register Now" button. Registration closes on the Thursday prior to class. If you should have any questions please contact Climbing Volunteer Lynn Johnson at 210-273-3586 or lmjohnson57@gmail.com.
